ALBERT OF BELGIANS AND SHERMAN AGREED

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
GENEVA, July 10.—King Albert of Belgium, accompanied by Guide Joseph Ravenel, who served throughout the war as a "blue devil" of France, incidentally being at Verdun, ascended Dru peak the other day. The king and the soldier remained on the summit for half an hour, the guide discreetly, he thought trying to question the king on his war record. The king was reluctant to speak of his war experience. When the guide came down he asked a newspaper man:

"What was it that the American General Sherman said about war?" King Albert told me Sherman said all that is to be said about war in three words."

INDIAN CLAIMS 144
YEARS; YET ACTIVE

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
LAGUNA MOUNTAINS, Cal., July 31.—Said to have been born 144 years ago, the year the Declaration of Independence was signed, on a spot which is now a government reservation and which he still calls home, Domingo Jacinto, chief of a tribe of Digger Indians, was one of the spectators at the Independence Day celebration here. Accompanied by his daughter, a granddaughter and a great grandson, he evinced keen interest in the program.

He is said to be older than the pines and other trees which make Laguna Mountains resort a playground for the residents of Imperial and San Diego mountains. Although feeble, he can walk, see and hear without difficulty.

VIENNA GOES IN TO SAVE MONEY

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
VIENNA, Aug. 4.—The deficit of this city is estimated at 1,200,000 crowns this year. All sources of municipal taxation have been tried to the breaking point and now the city government plans to cut down the civil list. Younger employees able to get other work will go first, and the pruning will go through all departments. It is found that for 190,000 children in the primary grade of the public schools there are 19,000 teachers, and many of these must go.

BRITISH CLERGYMAN
AFTER LATE STYLES

(Correspondence of Associated Press)
CARDIFF, Wales, July 12.—Again a British clergyman has put his foot down against the prevailing fashions in women's dress and refused to give communion to all women who kneel at the altar in attire which he may regard as immodest.

Father Joseph Parlin, celebrating high mass at St. Paul's Roman Catholic church here, issued the following warning to his congregation: "I hope that holy members of my parish will not attempt to attire themselves in some of the present-day fashions. If any immodestly dressed woman approaches the altar for holy communion I shall refuse to allow her to partake of the sacrament, passing her by as if she did not exist."

SPURIOUS UNITED STATES
GEOLOGIST SENT TO JAIL

J. E. Haggerty has lately been working in Wyoming and Oklahoma, representing himself to anybody he wanted to "work" as a United States geologist. Not long ago the commissioner of corporations at California received, in support of an application of an oil company for a permit authorizing it to issue stock, a "geological" report headed "Consulting Geologist under Instructions of J. E. Haggerty (United States geologist)," but the report contained statements so absurd that the commissioner made inquiry concerning Mr. Haggerty, the director of the United States geological survey, who stated that no one having that or a similar name had ever worked for the geological survey or was known to any of the government geologists who had worked in either the California or the mid-continent oil fields. Mr. Haggerty was thereafter investigated by a special agent of the department of justice, and, according to a statement by that department, was arrested on the charge of impersonating a government officer. On June 15 he was bound over to await the action of the United States grand jury and in default of $2500 bond, was confined in the Green county, Mo. jail.

Legal and Judicial Events in the Career of Peter J. Somers, Candidate for Justice of the Peace

Judge Somers was admitted to practice his profession in the Supreme Court of the State of Wisconsin in January, 1884. In 1894 he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States.

In 1905 he was admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the State of Nevada.

In 1908 he was selected Judge of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, and presided as such in the Counties of Esmeralda and Mineral until 1915.

During his administration he tried all the jury cases at Goldfield, and all the criminal cases brought before the court.

In Mineral County he likewise presided continuously as District Judge, during the time mentioned.

During his incumbency of the office of District Judge, he also tried many cases in different counties of the state in the various judicial districts, such as Clark, Lincoln, Nye, Washoe and Elko Counties.

In 1914 a series of damage suits were instituted at Goldfield in his court, aggregating over $200,000. These cases, for the convenience of witnesses and parties, were transferred to Reno for trial, and Judge Somers presided at these trials. Two of the most important were tried and determined, and his decision in these two cases was adopted and used by the attorneys on both sides as the basis of settlement in all the others.

Judge Somers' services were continuous from the time he assumed his duties until 1915, and the Supreme Court of the state was very considerate in passing on the opinions and decisions rendered by Judge Somers.

Judge Somers states that were his experience on the bench and at the bar materially less, he would not offend the good people of Tonopah by obtruding his candidacy for Justice at this time and, under the circumstances, in the coming election.
